

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. I subscribed last April and this service is wonderful. We no longer get the constant annoying solicitors calling us. I am on the phone all day at work and can't stand to answer my phone at night. Especially if it is someone that is selling me something. Please don't change a thing.